MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

City Council will be held to-night at 8 o'clock in Council Chamber Hall to take action relating to the question of annexation. The committee appointed by the Manchester Council to prepare the requisite statements, as requested by the joint committees of both cities at the last meeting, have completed the work. The report is at present in the hands of the printer, who will have it printed as directed by the Manchester committee, and will be ready in a few days.

The report comprises a detailed statement of the financial condition of Manchester, together with the amount of its present debt and annual expenses, besides giving an inteesting description of the city. thousand copies will be published for distribution in both cities.

FUNDING VIRGINIA BONDS. Delegates Appointed .- The following delegates have been appointed by the Manchester Baptist church to represent that church in the General Association, which meets in Charlottesville: S. E. Woodfin, George T. Blanton, Rev. W. L. Fitcher, and Decatur Edwards.

Brief Items .- Work has begun upon the Meade-Memorial church towards its enlargement, and the improvements will be pushed forward with energy. The Free bridge will be closed every morning from 5 to 10 o'clock whilst it is undergoing repairs. Something should at once be done for the protection of the young trees on the Courthouse Square, so as to prevent cattle from injuring them. Rev. J. Julius Sams, formerly rector of Meade-Memorial church in this city, is reported quite sick at Norfolk. He was com-

"Editors Chicago Field: Mr. Isaacs, Jr., of Richmond, Va., sent a challenge here from Mr. T. Taylor, of same place, to hunt the best dog in Malithe FURNITURE, FIXTURES, &c., ty ryland for $100 or $300. I immediately sent him word I would hunt MALCOLM for four days in Virginla on November 5, 6, 7, and 8, 1879. He names his setter KING. This will make a good hunt. "I will be obliged if you will also state that as soon as JOE, JR., and GLADSTONE finish their hunt and I finish mine with Mr. Taylor, that I challenge the winner of the same with MALCOLM. The purse shall be made to suit. All preliminaries for this last hunt shall be fixed through you, with your permission, as soon as the winner is aunounced. "H. MALCOLM. The above is from the Chicago Field of the 17th Mr. Taylor states that so far was he from challenging Mr. Malcoim that Mr. Malcolm sent an open challenge here to Mr. Isaacs, who made one or two efforts to get up a match with other dogs before Taylor picked him up. The match will probably come off, but Taylor don't want things "bottom up,"like a Dutch vignette. WHY HAS A WHITE ROSE ON A GOLDEN LYRE been adopted as a trade-mark by J. & E. ATKIN-
